

Starting New Things in Vancouver

An update of Esther Mueller serving with Youth With A Mission in Canada

December 8, 2013

I have a New Job!

This month I have taken on an exciting new position as Administrative Coordinator of our YWAM office. I am helping to pioneer this position for my team. For the next six months I will be creating a new "face" for Youth With A Mission (YWAM) Vancouver by responding to phone calls, e-mails and setting up standard procedures for our office. As I solidify this new administrative position I am also creating a new office space. This front office will be a huge blessing to YWAM staff as I keep items and information organized. This will allow staff to be able to find what they need when they need it. I love being able to practically help people and this new position allows me to do this on a daily basis! I am learning how to communicate well with people through phone calls and e-mails. One lesson I am learning is to communicate in a way that values people. I am seeing that as I show people how valuable they are I am getting to express God's love for them. I am honored to take on this new role of Administrative Coordinator. I am looking forward to serving others, meeting practical needs and showing love to people as I communicate.

Studying the Bible Online

I have officially begun my studies in an online Bible course! I am thrilled to partake in this in-depth YWAM Bible school called the School of Biblical Studies (SBS). Check out this link to discover more about the SBS (<http://www.sbsinternational.org/>).

I desire to know God in a deeper way and to discover new things about him through studying his word. This course involves observing, interpreting and applying the Scriptures to life. I love discovering facts about history and culture that enrich my understanding of God's messages in the Bible. What I am learning and discovering will impact my relationship with God now and in the future. It will also give me tools to help others encounter God through studying his word. I am really looking forward to this journey with God!

Above: For the next two years I will study the Bible like a detective with a magnifying glass. I want to see new things and discover God in new ways. What an adventure!

Above: I traveled by car with the DTS students to attend a week long conference about missions in Alberta. We stopped at this lake to stretch our legs and enjoy the view!

Joys:

-facilitating prayer times for my team

-befriending 14 students that are being trained through our Discipleship Training School (DTS)

-Answered prayer! I received wisdom which helped me decide to become the Administrative Coordinator for my team. Thank you for your prayers!

Prayer requests:

-wisdom for me as I decide about my next steps with support raising

-field assignment for DTS: This week 14 students and 8 staff will leave for South East Asia for a 3 month mission trip!

-I'll be in Vancouver for Christmas. Please pray for me as I am away from family

Please prayerfully consider partnering with me through financial support
